

Andriy Talpash
Music Composition

Andriy Talpash is an active composer, conductor, and educator based in Edmonton, Canada. He has composed works for numerous ensembles and soloists, including Calgary's Ensemble Resonance, The Rubbing Stone Ensemble, Continuum Contemporary Music, Ensemble Contemporain de Montréal, Ensemble KORE, Trio Fibonacci, Kathleen Supové, William Street, Roger Admiral, Viktoria Reisch-Dapp, Vincent David, Nicolas Prost, Mathieu Gaulin, among others. His works have been performed throughout Canada and the United States, Europe, and the People's Republic of China.

Since 2005, Dr. Talpash has been teaching music composition, theory, and orchestration at the University of Alberta, and is also the music department's New Music Coordinator.